Dear Joel:

Thank you once again for orchestrating a tour for the Suffolk County Community College Dietetic Technician Students. The group thoroughly enjoyed your overview and was able to relate key information to their internship field site and purchase order project.

The students also commented on how organized the facility appeared and the cleanliness of the operation. Many students also commented that they were impressed that you knew all of your employees by name and where they were from. You made all of us feel welcome and created an environment that was conducive to learning.

I look forward to visiting you again soon.

Sincerely,
Jodi Levine, MS, RD, CDN
Director, Dietetic Technician program
