Backyard Brine is a Long Island based Artisan Pickle Company run by husband and wife team Randy and Cori Kopke. All our pickles are hand packed in small batches using fresh, all natural and local ingredients, originally from our own “backyard” garden.

No artificial preservatives, chemicals or any of that weird yellow number 5 stuff...

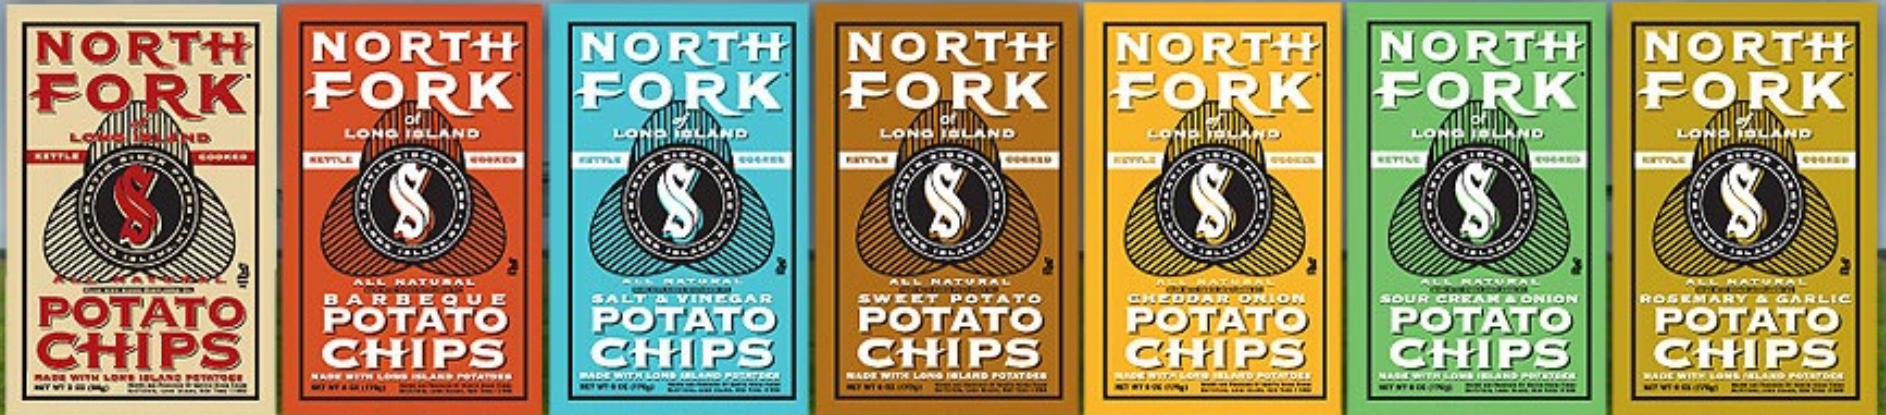

Our original recipes and seasonal specialties stand out from the rest, including some favorites like “Dill Death” and “Everything”.

Careful, our pickles are addictive!
